SIAC

Benedict 52, Kentucky State 45, OT

COLUMBIA, SC – Benedict sophomore QB Glenn Foreman III threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Demetris McKelvey in overtime and Kentucky State (8-3) could not answer allowing the Tigers (10-1) to come away with a 52-45 win over the Thorobreds (8-3) in the SIAC championship at Charlie W. Johnson Stadium in Columbia, SC.

Foreman

Benedict led 14-7 in the first quarter, but Kentucky State then scored 31 consecutive points to build a 24-point lead. Benedict battled back, tying the game at 38 and finally at 45 with 3:15 to go. Benedict in the SIAC and Virginia Union in the CIAA prevailed in Championship Games Saturday (See CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RECAPS) while South Carolina State (9-2, 4-2 MEAC) clinched its third straight MEAC title and pending Celebration Bowl appearance with a 38-24 win over North Carolina Central.

That leaves only the SWAC to determine who will play in its Championship Game on Saturday, December 5 with the winner then facing S. C. State in the Dec. 12 bowl game at Atlanta's Mercedes Benz Stadium.

Meanwhile, six black college teams – an unprecedented four teams from the SIAC and two from the CIAA – received berths in the NCAA Div. II national playoffs.

THE WACKY SWAC RACE COMES DOWN TO THIS

Over the past five weeks, four of the six teams in the SWAC's East have shared the division lead while five of the six West teams have spent time tied at the top.

Heading into the final week, well, really two weeks of the season, here's the scenario.

SWAC 2025 West Division and conference champ Prairie View A&M (6-5 overall) leads the SWAC West with a 5-2 conference record. A win by head coach Tremaine Jackson's Panthers Saturday (2 p.m., ESPN+) in Montgomery, Ala. at Alabama State (7-3, 4-3 SWAC E) would earn PV a repeat appearance in the league's championship game. Of note, Alabama State knocked Jackson State out of first place in the East on Saturday with a 14-10 win at home in Montgomery.

As it stands now, Southern (6-5), Alcorn State (6-5) and Arkansas-Pine Bluff (6-4) are all a game behind PV at 4-3 in the SWAC West. Prairie View has 3-point wins over both Alcorn State (41-38 on Oct. 17) and Arkansas-Pine Bluff (13-10, last Saturday) but lost to Marshall Faulk's Southern Jaguars, 28-14 (on Oct. 10).

A Prairie View loss vs. Alabama State opens the door for Southern, who is off this week, to claim the West Division title and league championship game berth with a win over rival Grambling State at next Saturday's (Nov. 28) Bayou Classic in New Orleans.

SWAC Southwestern Athletic Conference

	DIV W	DIV L	ALL W	ALL L
EAST DIVISION
Alabama A&M	5	2	8	3
Jackson State	4	3	7	3
Alabama State	4	3	6	4

Southern	4	3	6	5
Alcorn State	4	3	6	5
Arkansas-Pine Bluff	4	3	6	4
Grambling State	3	4	5	5
Texas Southern	2	5	3	7

That's just the West. Similar scenarios are at play in the East.

Alabama A&M (8-3) enters its final regular season game Saturday on the road in Itta Bena, Ms. (2 p.m., SWAC TV) vs. Mississippi Valley State atop the East race at 5-2. A win for head coach Sam Shade's Bulldogs propels them into the Dec. 5 SWAC finale.

Jackson State (7-3) and Alabama State (6-4) are a game behind in the East at 4-3. Alabama A&M lost to Jackson State 31-28 on Oct. 3 and beat Alabama State by the same score (31-28) at their Magic City Classic duel on Oct. 31. An Alabama A&M loss at MVSU opens the door to the championship game to Jackson State provided the Tigers can win Saturday at Alcorn State (2 p.m., ESPN+).

THE NCAA DIV. II PLAYOFFS

The down-to-the wire SWAC race should not overshadow the great accomplishment of the SIAC landing four teams in the NCAA Div. II playoffs, based on the new NCAA Power Index (NPI) ranking. Each has a chance of advancing to the second round. All the first round games will be streamed on ESPN+.

The quartet is led by champion Benedict (10-1) who earned the top seed in the eight-team Super Region II. Ron Dickerson's Tigers will host South Atlantic Conference co-champ, No. 8 Newberry (9-2) at 2 p.m. Saturday. All the other games have 1 p.m. kickoffs.

SIAC runners-up Kentucky State (8-3) is seeded third and will host 6th-seed SAC co-champ Carson-Newman (9-2) in Frankfort, Ky. Central State (6-4) is fourth in the region and plays at Conference Carolinas champion UNC-Pembroke (9-2). In its first postseason appearance, Edward Waters (7-4) is seventh and is on the road to face Gulf South champ Valdosta State (8-1), the second seed.

CIAA champion Virginia Union (10-1) is fourth in Super Region I and will play at home in Richmond, Va. vs. California (PA) (8-3) of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC). Fayetteville State (8-3), who won the CIAA's Friday Blitz Game over Virginia State, is ranked 7th and will play at PSAC winner Kutztown (10-1) in Kutztown, PA.

Johnson C. Smith (8-3), who lost to VUU 15-14 in the CIAA title game but beat Fayetteville State 20-14 in the regular season, was curiously ranked seventh behind FSU (5th) in the final NPI and left out of the championship field.
